

25X1

SECRET

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Thursday - 16 March 1967

Page 2

[redacted] Met with Mr. Kaz Oshiki, Administrative Assistant to Congressman Robert Kastenmeier (D., Wis.), indicating that we were evaluating the paper product developed by the Industrial Research Corp., Middleton, Wisconsin, and that we had evaluated the same, or a similar, product from this company in 1964 at the request of another congressional office. Mr. Oshiki said he appreciated our informing him of this and said he would pass this on to the Congressman.

25X1

[redacted] Miss Virginia Butler, Department of State, called to confirm her listing of bills introduced in the Congress concerning the Agency and its activities. Miss Butler remarked that many people in State were watching these legislative developments very closely.

[redacted] Mr. Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to inquire whether the Agency had any preference as to whether the debriefing of the Cubans [redacted] took place in Washington or Miami. I said we would be back in touch.

25X1

25X1

25X1

[redacted] Delivered an Agency brochure to the office of Congressman Frank Horton (R., N.Y.) for use in replying to a letter from his constituent, [redacted] protesting CIA or FBI investigation of faculty members of the Brockport State University. I explained that the Agency has no internal security jurisdiction and pointed out this section of the National Security Act of 1947 as set forth in the information brochure.

25X1

SECRET

25X1

25X1